

SCASC State and District Officers (Guidelines and Expectations)

- Lead, serve and represent the state of South Carolina student councils with dignity, honor and class.
- Carry yourself in a manner that demonstrates respect for yourself, your school, your family and SCASC.
- Consider your actions so that what you do reflects a positive representation of the state and students you represent. This includes at school, at home, in the community, at conferences and on social media.
- To promote fairness during SCASC election campaigns, current SCASC officers will not endorse, like, follow or openly support any one candidate.

SCASC Historian

1. Elected at the state convention in March.
2. Create a digital scrapbook of all important SCASC Events.
3. Create a year-in-review video for the state convention.
4. Update the SCASC photo gallery.
5. Take pictures at all SCASC events.
6. Work closely with the president and executive director and help where needed.
7. Attend the turnover meeting. (Take notes and become familiar with the duties of the historian)
8. Attend and play a leadership role at the summer Leadership Camp.
9. If possible attend the NASC conference in June.
10. Attend the State convention planning meeting in December.
11. If possible attend the advisor/middle level workshop in January.
12. Attend and play a leadership role at the State Convention in March.

Note: Advisors must be committed to supervising, supporting, and helping the elected student to complete the task related to this position.