

What can SCASC membership do for you and your school?

1. Fall Leadership Workshops – one day rally workshops (hosted by the school of the student chairman) held throughout the state in one of the six districts of SCASC. Open to all member schools.
2. Southern Conference - a three day conference held in one of the southern states. Includes workshops, speakers, networking and leadership training.
3. Advisors' Workshop – a one-day workshop in the winter (held in Columbia) that includes SCASC information, a session with a guest presenter, and an idea sharing period.
4. Middle Level Workshop – held on the same day as the Advisors' Workshop. Sessions on leadership training, team building, ice breakers, social activities, guest speakers, and networking. For middle level members.
5. State Convention – a two and a half day convention (hosted by the school of the state president) of speakers, workshops, campaigning and election of state officers, business meetings, award presentations and a banquet. Open to member schools.
6. National Conference – the opportunity to attend a national conference including workshop sessions, speakers, team building activities, community service, networking with students (from all fifty states as well as other nations), and social activities.
7. Summer Leadership Camp – a four and a half day camp of intensive training in all aspects of leadership. Held at the FFA Camp at Cherry Grove, SC. For member schools.
8. Newsletter- two-three times a year, the executive director sends out a newsletter about upcoming events and activities, awards received by students of member schools, and information and sharing of ideas.

9. Resource/website– the SCASC executive directors will assist member schools with advice, suggestions, ideas, and resources for various topics/situations.

10. Opportunities for advisors and students to network, share ideas and work together to build service, integrity, and respect within our schools, our communities and our state.
